

Howard Johnson

September 5, 1944 - December 29, 2009

ROANOKE -- Howard A. Johnson died at his home Monday, Dec. 28, 2009.

Service: 11 a.m. Tuesday, Jan. 5, at Lucas Family Funeral Home, 137 E. Hill St., Keller. Interment: 1 p.m. in Dallas-Fort Worth National Cemetery.

Viewing: 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Monday, Jan. 4, at Lucas Funeral Home.

Memorials: In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations in his name be made to the Roanoke Food Bank. Howard was born Sept. 5, 1944, in Chicago, Ill. After high school Howard was in the U.S. Army for two years during the Vietnam era, stationed in Germany. He attended DePaul University, Chicago, and graduated with a degree in accounting. Mr. Jackson spent 37 years with IBM with transfers to Louisville, Ky., Cincinnati, Ohio, Topeka, Kan., Kansas City, Mo., and Dallas before retiring in 2004. Howard attended classes at TCCC. He was an avid bowler. He was a graduate of the Keller PD Citizens Police Academy and did volunteer work at the Keller Police Department in the warrant division. He loved the Cowboys. He will be sadly missed by all. Survivors: Mr. Johnson is survived by his wife, Bonnie of the home; son, Michael Johnson of Wichita, Kan., wife, Jennifer, and children, Jordan and Zackery; daughter, Lori Reiter of Holmen, Wis., husband, Jeff, and children, Aidan and Beri; sister, Trish Volkert, of Cary, Ill., husband, Ted; and numerous friends.

Lucas Funeral Home

Tribute Wall

LR

“ I miss you so much Dad. There have been so many times I have wanted to call and share something with you, but I can't. I have your picture on my mirror so I can see you every morning. It's just really really hard ! I love you!

Lori Reiter - May 01, 2010 at 06:58 PM

TV

“ We have had many good years together and have had much fun through our lives. It was great to have a big brother and I am going to miss you very much. I love you!

Trish (Johnson) Volkert - January 08, 2010 at 06:34 PM

LR

“ My father was just such an amazing man. Intelligent, funny, and caring. I still cannot believe he is gone. You always have those thoughts of I wished I would've called or said "I love you" one more time, but one thing I can hold close to my heart is the fact that we had a great relationship. He loved me and he knew I loved him. Rest in peace Dad and I'll see you again. I love you!

Lori Reiter - January 08, 2010 at 10:26 AM

TO

“ So sorry to hear about Howard. My friend Jim Atwell, who was a childhood friend of Howard's, and I enjoyed talking to him for quite awhile at the last RLHS reunion.

Terry

Terry O'Connell - January 07, 2010 at 10:37 AM

LN

“ I remember Howard as a nice, friendly, quiet young man. He always smiled and seemed to be happy. I seem to remember him being in band, but I may be wrong...Love and condolences to his family.
Leslie

leslie napier - January 05, 2010 at 12:23 PM

LS

“ I certainly enjoyed our recent conversations at the class reunion. Howard was a true gentlemen.

Larry Sorensen - January 05, 2010 at 11:16 AM

AW

“ My deepest sympathies to the Johnson family. I remember Howard from High school.

April Siebert Walton - January 05, 2010 at 03:40 AM

SS

“ It's always sad to lose a high school (RLHS '62)classmate...reminds us of our own mortality. The great hope is in a glorious class reunion in Heaven.

sharon borson stewart - January 04, 2010 at 10:24 PM

JD

“ Dear Trish and Family, We so much enjoyed visiting with Howard at the last reunion. We are so sorry to hear that he has passed away. We hope you find comfort in knowing that other people care.

John and Linda Drake - January 04, 2010 at 09:21 PM

SW

“ Just want to let you all know you are in our prayers. We were classmates of Howard at RLHS. He touched many hearts through his 65 years.

Bob and Kathy Swieton

Swieton - January 04, 2010 at 09:10 PM

SW

“ Dear Trish and Howard’s Loved Ones,
Howard was too young to die, but we know that he is at Peace with our Lord.

I think that you’ll notice in the Texas sky, a new bright “STAR” shining in Memory of Howard..!!

He will be with you forever; in your heart and memories that you shared with him through the years.

With Deepest Sympathy, Love and Friendship,

Tom & Shirley (Brown) Washburn

(1962 RLHS Classmate, Shirley)

Shirley & Tom Washburn - January 04, 2010 at 08:23 PM