“ I am laying awake thinking of Ida May, the talks we had. I wanted to put them on paper.
Sweetest thing I saw:
Ida May put her arms around Sister Wilson and told her she was her best friend and she loved her...
Sister Wilson would say, Ida Mae would go to sleep in church and she would wake her up.
Ida May would say, I can't sleep at home, but I sure can sleep in church.
I enjoyed our talks, wish I had had more. I beleived we became friends. She would talk about her Mother and growing up. She would talk about the bible.
When we start to miss Ida Mae, I can just see her hugging her Mother right now.
Prase the Lord for Ida Mae.

“ Ida Mae was a dear friend for the last twenty plus years. We will miss her for her laugh, her sense of humor, her compassionate caring of those she knew. She kept Bill in hot peppers, hours on the phone solving city problems with Joyce. God said he would make a place(house) for us. Dear friend, we will see you at the house.
