“ We were so sorry to hear about the passing of Jimmy as my family called him. He was always such a loving caring guy with a smile on his face every time we saw him. My mom thought a lot of Jimmy and enjoyed all the chats they had when he would come to mow her yard. I am sure she was there to welcome him home as his dad was. He is gone for now but we are comforted by God's word that we will see our love ones again one day. All our love and prayers go out to the most wonderful neighbors I could have grown up next to. They were a blessing to my life. Barbara Sheeley Melton & George & Jennifer
