

James Edward Gulley

November 10, 1963 - August 23, 2011

Jim worked for the Northwest ISD in the technology department and was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force. He played bass guitar for St. Peter Lutheran's band, Mercy Seat, and Fellowship United Methodist Church's band, Zamar. His life was dedicated to his faith, his family and his music, and he made certain that his wife and children knew how very much he loved them every day. Whether it was watching his daughter march in the band or his son play baseball, Jim's favorite thing to do was to spend time with his family, and his family is forever grateful for this gift.

Survivors: Wife, Edie; son, Austin; daughter, Elizabeth Clement and her husband, Dwayne; brother, Mike; and sister, Dianne.
