

James Lawson

April 2, 1937 - August 26, 2005

??MANSFIELD -- James Phillip Lawson, 68, who retired from Core Lab as a ballistics engineer expert in February 2005, died Friday, Aug. 26, 2005, in Mansfield. ♂??? Funeral: 10 a.m. Tuesday at Blessing Colonial Chapel, 401 Elm St., Mansfield. Burial: Calvary Cemetery, Mansfield. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Monday at Blessing Funeral Home. ♂??? Phillip was born in Burkburnett April 2, 1937, the son of James Wesley and Bernice Mable. He was married to Carol Lynn Gay Feb. 11, 1956, in Fort Worth. ♂??? He was preceded in death by wife, Carol Lawson; and parents, Wesley and Bernice Lawson. ♂??? Survivors: Son, Michael Lawson and wife, Jennifer of North Richland Hills; daughters, Lisa Lawson of Mansfield and Luann White and husband, Jim of Mansfield; son, Chris Lawson and family of Paris, Texas; sisters, Virginia Sumerall of Irving and Phyllis Oneal and husband, Boyd of Atlanta, Ga.; grandchildren, Lyndee Lovelace and husband, Brad, Kara Lawson, Aaron Lawson and Madison White of Mansfield; great-grandchildren, Mason Lovelace and Zaine Lawson.