“ I knew Jamie in high school. My memory of her is that of the kindest sweetest friend I had. Never judged others or spoke ill of anyone. May the peace which comes from the memories of love shared, comfort you now and in the days ahead.

“ I knew Jamie through my 2 aunts Ann Ziegler & Ruth Hughes Rea. In our younger years when I would come to Oil City, Jamie & Patty were also there, along with my cousin Tracey. We had the best time, going shopping with Aunt Ruth, staying upstairs in our special bedroom at Aunt Ruth's. Jamie had a beautiful smile and a sweet sister Patty. May the family find peace at this most difficulty time.

“ Jamie was my best friend in the awkward middle school years. I remember her eating frosted mini wheats with peanut butter on them and her nick name "Yankle" and especially her contagious laugh. This family has been resilient through many losses and has demonstrated love that never dies. If DJ, Ashley and Tiffany are even half the character their mom was, they are going to be okay until they are with her again. So sorry to Danny for losing her so young. You are all in my prayers for comfort.

“ We are so very sorry to hear of Jamie's passing. We did not know her well but were acquainted with her through Aunt Betty (Spence) and of course, we knew her Dad well. We loved him dearly!

“ My heart is broken thinking about Jamie being taken at such a young age! There are no words to truly express my feelings. But, I am happy that she is now living in Heaven with our other family members, like Rosemary, Paula, Aunt Stephanie, Uncle Sam, and Stephen. She is surrounded now by many others who loved her here on earth: Grandma and Grandpa Bruno, Aunt Sally McDonald, Aunt Mary McMahan, Aunt Nena Parker, Aunt Rose Petulla, Aunt Virginia Bruno, and Aunt Josie Kulinski. Just imagine the loving and sweet reunion they are having with Jamie right now! It gives me chills to think about it! But, for those left behind, try to be kind to yourselves in this difficult time. Know that Jamie loved you all so much, and remember with fondness her time spent with you here.

Sincerely and with love, Your cousin, Maribeth
