“Jan, I wish I could talk to you and tell you how much I appreciate your sweet smile and your example of a perfect Christian lady. I have such good memories of you and the very enjoyable evenings I spent at your house during ladies get togethers. You were always such a kind, graceful hostess. Although, I would not have you back on earth if you had to endure more pain. I know you are singing with our brothers and sisters in heaven and God and Jesus are with you enjoying your presence. Save me a place. I'll be there before you know it.

Much love to Dave and Family as you adjust to your loss.

“Jan always had such a contagious smile, and very loving heart. If I learned anything during her illness it was how to conduct myself during a time of distress. I'll greatly miss her.

“Jan was one of the most selfless people I have ever met. Her heart was always filled with compassion and genuine care for others - both people and animals. It seems as if she was always on the lookout for things she could buy or even find around her house to give away to someone else who might benefit from them. Her life has truly been a blessing to all who ever knew her, for she always demonstrated the heart of Jesus. She will be greatly missed by all!

“ My fond memories are Jan are of her friendliness and her kindness. I know that sometimes she would find baby or children's clothing at Sadie's and give it to D'Sha` for one of our grandchildren. I thought that especially kind. She was just a wonderful, spirit-filled woman. She was a blessing just to know her. She was just an inspiring person. She is missed.

“ Jan always had a smile for everyone. She was an inspiration to many. Her faith never wavered during her lengthy illness. She showed us how a Christian bravely faces cancer. Everyone knew she loved cats and often gave her items about cats. Jan will be missed. We will think often of the happy memories. We miss her already.

“ The first time that I met Jan was when she and Dave placed membership at the Keller Church of Christ. In a short visit on that day, Jan asked about how she could get involved. I asked her if she could sew. That very week she came to my house and we made tablecloths for the Ladies' Ministry of the Keller Church of Christ. She did not have a serger at the time but bought one by the time we had finished this project. Her energy and willingness to work with the Ladies' Ministry helped to make it the success that it is today. Jan and Dave's hospitality will long be remembered by myself and Ray.

“ When we first came to Keller to worship in 2004, we were immediately impressed with Jan and Dave Roberts. Since then your faith has been inspirational to us as you dealt with Jan's cancer. We love you with the love of the Lord and pray that you experience His comfort to the fullest. God bless.

“ My memories of Jan will always include her smile, her courage and her diversive hats that hid the effects of chemo. To those of us who are traveling down the same road of uncertainty battling cancer, she was a comrade who offered support and a caring heart.

“ I loved Jan with all my heart. Over time I had many good times with Jan. My husband, Bill, loved her also. He built a cabinet for her paints and the entrance sign for their property in East Texas. There were so many things I loved about Jan, there's not enough room.

“ Jan was the candle that shone brightly for the rest of us. She was an example of courage, faith and ever with a sense of humor. Now the birds in Trophy Club will have to scavenge for seeds and all the cats of this earth will have a little less love. But I am sure her influence will continue through those she touched with her words, love and generosity.
