

JASON CURTIS

September 11, 1971 - July 30, 2007

FORT WORTH -- Jason Skaggs Curtis, 35, a loving husband and wonderful father, died Monday afternoon, July 30, 2007. Memorial Service: 11 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 2, in the sanctuary of University Christian Church, 2720 S. University Drive. The Rev. Dr. Alan Lobaugh will officiate. Honorary bearers will be Charles Comer, Rusty Dial, Scott King, Todd Lucas, Tosch Lucas, Clark Peveto, Gordon Roberts, Thomas Saunders, Alan Thomas, Jerry Thomas and Bryan Walsh. Visitation: Jason's family will receive friends in the Gallery at the church, immediately following the memorial service. Memorials: Consideration of contributions, in lieu of flowers, to the Gladney Center for Adoption or to the Texas Cattle Raisers Association, in memory of Jason, is suggested. A native of Fort Worth, Jason was born September 11, 1971, the son of J. R. and Sue Skaggs Curtis. He grew up in Longview and attended Texas Christian University. Jason married Janey Thomas in 1996. Jason was in the oil and gas business with his father-in-law, Jerry L. Thomas. He was also involved in the cattle business with the Saunders family of Weatherford. His memberships included Kappa Sigma Fraternity, the Texas Cattle Raisers Association, Wildcatters and University Christian Church. An avid outdoorsman, Jason loved to hunt, fish and play golf. He was a great friend to many and always was the life of the party. He was preceded in death by his beloved father, James Robert Curtis. Survivors: Jason is survived by his wife of 11 years, Janey Thomas Curtis; his daughters, Margaret, Libby and Georgia; his mother, Sue Curtis of Longview; sister, Elizabeth Campbell and her husband,

David of Longview; mother-in-law and father-in-law, Bridget and Jerry Thomas of Fort Worth; brother-in-law, Alan Thomas; and sister-in-law, Carol Thomas. Robertson Mueller Harper Funerals & Cremations 1500 Eighth Ave., 817-924-4233
