“ Joel and I were hired and attended rookie school together, and worked on the same shift for a number of years. He has always been a person I admired and highly respected. I can only hope to be as good a person and firefighter as our brother Joel.

“ Valerie and family,
We are so very sorry to hear about Joel. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you.
Valerie, I so remember you as a young girl at Judson Baptist Church and know through your parents that you blossomed into a beautiful young woman. I am so very sorry that you must suffer this heartache.
We love you all.

“ We will miss you Joel and always remember what a positive person you were. I know Valerie will miss you so very much and I remember when yall were dating and how you made Valerie so happy. We just lost our baby girl and we know somewhat what you are going through Valerie and you will be in our prayers.
