“ Summers at Cape Cod, and being shimmed through a window because one of Poppa's friend locked her keys in her house. Poppa had to pry open her window and I got shimmed through. Good times good times. Love you Poppa. Keep the fatih.

“ I will really miss Jack. He was such a kind person. I especially appreciate his unwavering support and encouragement while I was in graduate school. He and Irene celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary while at our wedding. We will always remember fondly how they danced together so romantically, and shared our special day.
