

John Nesmith

November 7, 1924 - November 23, 2007

Memorials: Friends who desire are respectfully invited to honor his memory with a gift in his name to the American Lung Association, P.O. Box 470773, Fort Worth 76147, 817-737-4776; or a charity of choice. John Bill Nesmith was born Nov. 7, 1924, in Brownwood to John Kyle and Jessie Frances Nesmith. He was a 47-year employee at General Dynamics. He was involved in many activities over the years. He was past president of Longhorn Toastmasters Club, a deacon at Riverside Christian Church and initiator of a G.D. retirees' association where he served as president. For years he organized many family reunions. He enjoyed cooking, playing dominoes, hunting, fishing and dancing. He had many friends and was a helpful, generous and loving father. The family extends its gratitude to the many loving caregivers at Parkwood Healthcare Community. John was preceded in death by his wife, Peggy; daughter, Jean Ann Nesmith; and sister, Frances Lewis. Survivors: Left to mourn his death and treasure their memories are children, Kay Trotter of Fort Washington, Md., David Nesmith and wife, Linda of Bossier City, La., Bill Nesmith and wife, Jan of Tujunga, Calif., Joy NeSmith and husband, Steve Mhoon of Grapevine; grandchildren, Shelley Trotter, Debbie Trotter and husband, Jason Shadid, Clint, Chad and Caitlin Nesmith; brother-in-law, C.C. McHan and wife, Virginia; sisters, Theresa Counts, Patsy Castanon and husband, Leo; beloved nephews, nieces, cousins and many friends.
