

John Parks

August 26, 1930 - December 15, 2006

LILLIAN -- John Willam Parks Jr., 76, passed away Friday, Dec. 15, 2006, at a Mansfield hospital. ♂ Funeral: 2 p.m. Monday at Blessing Colonial Chapel. Burial: Pleasant Point Cemetery, Lillian. Visitation: 5 to 7 p.m. Sunday at Blessing Funeral Home. ♂ Memorials: Central Baptist Church building fund. ♂ Survivors: Children, Pam Wilkerson of Burleson, Patricia Parks-Aceves of Duncanville and Kenneth Parks of Lancaster; six grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; brother, George Parks and wife, Carolyn of Lillian; sister, Joyce Overman of Tennessee.

Tribute Wall

KP

“ Loved and missed by all that knew him ,a good and kind man. I was proud to call him Dad.

---

Ken Parks - December 26, 2006 at 04:20 AM

PA

“ With a heart full of love and thanksgiving, I light this candle for you. I will honor you by living a life that I believe you would be proud of. When God calls, I plan to join the worship service that you now attend, and honor our heavenly father,God, together. With love, Patty

---

Patty - December 25, 2006 at 11:09 PM

BK

“ I attended the same Church as John did. I really got acquainted very fast with him and the we discussed his old Chevy that drove to the Church. He preached a sermon one night at Central Baptist Church.

---

Bill Kirby - December 19, 2006 at 04:06 PM

RC

“ John was a very plesant fellow to be around. I enjoyed his singing and preaching. I am proud to have been his chirstain brother.

---

Roy Cox - December 19, 2006 at 02:47 PM

JH

“ You will be missed.

---

Jim Hill - December 19, 2006 at 12:44 PM

EL

“ We will miss you dearly. Love always ~ Sissy

---

Elizabeth - December 18, 2006 at 08:13 PM