“ Jordan, I still remember the weekend I met you. Alexis brought you along to our family reunion in Eastland, TX back in 2004 or 2005. I'll especially remember it because you grabbed me and kissed me when they dared us. I'll never forget that moment. We did talk some after that weekend, but we never met up to hang out. And it makes me sad how i never reached out to you through the years. I am really embarrassed to say that I just found out you passed away 7 years ago... Life has been really busy for me since then. Marriage and a kid with another on the way. I know you would be happy for me. That is just the person you are. I hope you are at peace and we will see you soon up there. Bye Mo.

“ Jordan, you were and still are a sweet, sweet girl. I trust very few people with my children, but Carley really enjoyed the times you babysat for me. Thank you for helping me with a team of 4 year olds that wanted to be COUGAR cheerleaders! You will be greatly missed. Your memory is a keepsake, from which we'll never part. God has you in his arms. We have you in our hearts. Rest in peace sweet girl...
