“ Me and Justin went to middle school and high school together. Both of our last names began with C so if we had a homeroom or an athletics class together, then we would have lockers right by each other. I used to play football with him and Aubrey at the park in Grapevine off of Haydenbend Cir. The last time I saw him was down in South Padre about 3 years before his passing. He was a good guy and my prayers go out to his family.

“ I knew Justin since he was friends with my brother Josh. He was an usher at Josh & Shelbi's wedding in May 2004. He also helped my parents and I move to Grapevine from our house in Bedford. He was such a sweet and caring guy. I truly miss him. I love you Justin!

“ So many, but I will always treasure going down those rapids with you in Colorado and Canada!! I also remember going to the creek and getting completely covered from head to toe in mud and walking toward home and letting it dry - we jumped in the creek after it harden and washed it all off!! I will carry you in my heart always until I meet you again in heaven. Love you little brother

“ *Dearest Justin,
The world has become so hard to deal with now that you and Aubrey are gone. My only consolation is that you will truly remain best friends together forever and you didn't have to take that journey alone. I'm sure Cory is glad that if he had to be stuck with anyone it is the two of you. You were like a son to my parents and I. We loved you dearly and always will, and miss you terribly.*

“ Dear Justin, you were Aubrey's best friend for as long as we can remember and a true friend is exactly what you were. We remember you with those braces on your teeth and your gangly body growing into the handsome young man that you became, with the most gorgeous smile that we all will remember forever. I snapped a picture of the guitar player at the memorial service and I'll be darned if two white shiny spears aren't floating high above his head in that picture. I am happy you and Aubrey were there to see how many people came to honor you. You were a true gentleman and you and Aubrey have some awesome friends. We hope you will dwell happily in the house of the Lord forever. We love you Justin.

“ Justin was a great friend and always a joy to be around. He would always make me laugh with the new "inventions" he always tried to sell us on. He had a great sense of humor and a wonderful personality. He will be dearly missed, but will always be in my thoughts.
