“ The world is a lesser place without this fine young man who was kind to everyone he encountered. I am so sorry that he is no longer with us and will not have the opportunity to complete his plans. My deepest sympathies are with TJ and the rest of his family.

“ I knew Justin at both his high and low points of his life and I am so proud to have had him as a friend. I know that he is in a better place, but I selfishly want him here with us! I will miss his smile and his wit. This world is a little darker without the light of Justin's life in it.

“ Justin went to Northwest with my three children - Amanda, Michael, and Sarah Hooper. They were all good friends, and there were many good times in band together. Although we had lost touch over the past few years, we never forgot you. May you rest in peace, Justin, and may your family find comfort that you brought joy to so many. We will not forget you.

“ Justin - We begin this difficult journey, grieving over the devastating news of your tragic early passing, searching for ways to cope with the void left in our hearts. The emotional outpouring from those left behind defines just how unique your presence in all of our lives will be forever cherished.

Life truly is a precious gift, and while I write this with a lump in my throat, fighting back inevitable tears... I am forever thankful that I could experience your comedic spirit, shared in times of laughter and ultimately for the gift of so many memories that will live on forever.

May you rest in peace, for you will be forever missed, but never forgotten.
