“ I first met Ken was when he agreed (upon Lana's request I'm sure) to do a walk-through inspection with me on my newly constructed house. He was indeed a big bear of a man with a heart gentle as an angel. The pleasure was mine to know him. Thanks Lana for sharing the best parts of your life with others.

“ Ken was a very dear friend and we will miss him greatly. Ken was one of the first persons we met when we moved to Texas some 20 years ago. We always thought the saying was true "things are big and friendly" in Texas. Tears will be shed everytime We have a painting project. Love you Lana & Kristin - we will be praying for your family.

“ We always refer to Ken as the gentle giant. He was a devoted husband, father, friend, and servant of God. He could fix anything, paint like an artist, speak quietly, and defend his family and faith mightily. His quiet presence and his big smile reminds is a reflection of his faith and joy in sharing life with his family and friends. Though our hearts are heavy, and we grieve in the midst of his loss, we know he has passed from this life through heaven's gate as a child of God and a man of strength. We know Ken watches over Lana and Kristin. Life will never be the same and lives will change forever. In the midst of it all, we trust in God's unfailing love even when he calls our dearest ones home. We are comforted in knowing Ken has arrived in the kingdom of heaven. While our loss is great, Ken has blessed us with his presence, and we look to God to bring peace and comfort to Lana and Kristin. Surely, God needs painters in His holy house!!!
