“ Anything that I can think to write seems pointless, other than this; we are lifting you and your family up in prayer constantly. Our prayer is found in Philippians 4:7 (New Living Translation)

Then you will experience God’s peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.

“ Mere words can't describe the hurt of hearing the news of Kimberly's passing.

Our love for the family and friends is never enough, only faith in God will direct the answer to the heart.

Your strength is challenged even greater with the loss of such a wonderful sweet angelic person.

Her children is her legacy and through Austin and Gracie she will forever be present in all our lives.

Gary & Helen, May God be present for you and Jeff and the babies.

She so lit up the atmosphere and will always be remembered.

Our prayers and friendship is there for you.

“ My deepest condolences on the loss of a beautiful daughter, granddaughter, wife and Mother. Having known this family twenty-four years Kimberly is loved very much and will be greatly missed every day. My thoughts and prayers are with her loving husband, her precious children, parents, Grandparents, Great Grandparents and numerous friends.

Kimberly will always be remembered by me as a bright, beautiful child as she grew into the loving wife and mother she became. Kimberly always had a smile for everyone and went out of her way to offer a kind word for those in need. Deep in my heart I believe she is dwelling in the presence of God where she wants to be. Kimberly will be greatly missed by those of us that look forward to joining her in the presence of the Lord.

“ It has been a long time since Kim and I had seen each other (high school), but we had recently just reconnected on Facebook. It was so good to hear from her. I am glad that I had the opportunity to visit with her briefly through email. I know she loved her children very much. I am so sorry to hear this news. I will miss her.

“ Dear Mitchell/Boyte families,
The news of Kim's passing was very devastating, and we just want you all to know how very sorry we are for your loss. Our family was very fortunate to have known Kim. She was a very sweet, bright and beautiful person, inside and out. More recently, we were able to reconnect with her, and are so grateful that we had the opportunity. She will be greatly missed. May God be with her children and you all and give you the strength you need during this most difficult time. Love and prayers.
