

LARKIN CHUMLEY

October 14, 1958 - February 22, 2007

FORT WORTH -- Larkin Murray Chumley, 48, went to be with our angels on Thursday, Feb. 22, 2007. ♂ Visitation: Murray's family will receive friends 1 to 2 p.m. Sunday in the Great Room at Robertson Mueller Harper. A celebration of his life will follow at Charleston's, 3020 S. Hulen St. ♂ Memorials: Consideration of contributions, in lieu of flowers, to the American Heart Association or the Humane Society of North Texas, 1840 E. Lancaster Avenue, Fort Worth 76103, in memory of Murray is suggested. ♂ A native of Manchester, Tenn., Larkin Murray Chumley was born Oct. 14, 1958, the son of Murray and Sally Matlock Chumley. He graduated from Middle Tennessee University and will be best remembered for his gentle personality, kind spirit and compassionate soul. ♂ Murray had a unique intellect and dry sense of humor. But, most of all, he shared a special bond with his wife, Melanie. It took them awhile to find one another, but it was a perfect union of two kindred spirits. ♂ He had a passion for photography and loved to travel and experience new places and people--always another picture to be taken. Murray worked in the audio-visual industry and very much enjoyed taking care of his clients. He loved and cared for people. He will be missed by all whose lives he touched. ♂ Murray was preceded in death by his father and grandparents. ♂ Survivors: Wife, Melanie Sue Colton-Chumley of Fort Worth; mother, Sally Matlock Chumley; sister, Sally Ann Chumley Cox; and his beloved cats, Bubbles, Shiu and Mackie.
