

LIBBY ROBINSON

October 19, 1932 - July 27, 2008

FORT WORTH -- Libby Padow Robinson died peacefully Sunday morning, July 27, 2008. Funeral: 10 a.m. Tuesday in the Kornbleet Memorial Cemetery Chapel, 411 N. University Drive. Rabbi Stefan Weinberg, Congregation Anshai Torah, Plano, and Dr. Javier Smolarz, ritual director of Congregation Ahavath Sholom, will officiate. Following committal prayers, Libby will be laid to rest in Ahavath Sholom Cemetery. Minyan services will be held at the residence, beginning at 6 p.m. Memorials: In lieu of flowers, consideration of contributions to Congregation Ahavath Sholom or to the Leukemia-Lymphoma Society, in Libby's memory, is suggested. A native of Richmond, Va., Libby was born Oct. 19, 1932, the daughter of Morris and Leja Ziskind Padow. She married Irvin Robinson on May 23, 1951. Libby and Dr. Robinson moved to Fort Worth in July of 1959 where they raised their four children. She was a member of Congregation Ahavath Sholom, Hadassah and B'nai B'rith. Libby had been a travel agent prior to her being diagnosed with Central Nervous System, Non-Hodgkins Lymphoma nine years ago. Survivors: In addition to her husband of 57 years, Libby is survived by her sons, Jeffrey Robinson and his wife, Sharon of Houston, Steve Robinson and Barry Robinson, both of Fort Worth; daughter, Stacy Robinson Blank and her husband, Darren of Dallas; grandchildren, Courtney, Haley and Zane Robinson of Houston, Justin Robinson and his wife, Michelle of Crowley, Leah Robinson of Fort Worth and Carly and Brandon Blank of Dallas; great-grandchildren, Rebel and Gage Robinson; brother, Dr. Walter Padow and his wife, Dr. Mildred Padow of Plantation, Fla.; and nephew, Marcus Padow. Robertson Mueller Harper

Funerals & Cremations 1500 Eighth Ave., 817-924-4233