Lisa McCoy passed away on Sunday, December 18 after a long battle with multiple challenges to her health. Lisa was born on May 20, 1958, at John Peter Smith hospital in Fort Worth, Texas to Freeda Edna Winger and Robert Lawrence Winger, both now deceased. Lisa married Raymond Stanley McCoy in May of 1992 and they made their home in Arlington, Texas. Lisa is survived by her husband, Stan McCoy; one son, Jamie Joe Bryan and two grandchildren, Avery and Benjamin Bryan, also of Arlington; and one sister, Gloria Smith Bragg, of Graham, Texas. Lisa attended Wichita Falls Senior High School in Wichita Falls and Breckenridge High School in Breckenridge, Texas. She was an operations manager for the textile industry and directed independent catering and interior decorating projects. Lisa had many creative interests; she enjoyed every moment spent with her family, especially her grandchildren. She also loved the great outdoors, being with her pets, and feeding the birds. She loved and was loved dearly by her family and friends. Lisa will be greatly missed.
