“ It seems like a lifetime ago when we were teacher-neighbors at Cedar Creek, and I first met you and Lisa. My thoughts are with you now at this difficult time. I pray you will find peace and comfort where you can.

“ May God bless and comfort you both at this most difficult time. Lisa's memory will live on through you, but also through the many children whose lives she touched. God has a special place for her in heaven, I'm sure.

“ Lisa will always be my "Little Sister." After all our years as teaching partners, we got to the point where we could finish each other's sentences. Although I had 10 years more teaching experience, I always learned new things from Lisa. I'll miss the times we laughed together and cried together. I'll miss her terribly.

“ Lisa left a wonderful legacy. She taught all of us well....to laugh(and she had a great one), love, struggle, endure and be grateful through it all!

Now is a time of sorrow, but what will carry us through are memories, friends, hope, family, and God's tender love.

“ Lisa was a beautiful, vibrant woman full of life and love for her those around her. Her devotion to James and Allison was unconditional.

The world has lost a compassionate and outspoken advocate for children.

My sorrow for you is without end. You're in my prayers.
