“Margie was such a fun and happy person to be around. I only knew her thru her buisness. When they had the car wash & oil change business in Mansfield is when I got to know Margie. She could tell a story so good Joe would be finished with my truck but I would want to just stay and talk to Margie. My husband Ron dealt with them thru his work at Joe Pool Lake. He enjoyed talking with Margie also. We are so sorry for y'all's loss. She will truly be missed.

“Grannie, it is almost bitter sweet that you're gone. You're not suffering anymore but we miss you more than words can express. We know you're watching down on us and will be right there with us through out the rest of our lives. Any time we see a pink flower or anything that is pink, your beautiful face will appear, and we will remember all of the good times we had, the laughs we shared, the tears, all the holidays and visits to Grannie's house. All of the cards we made you with construction paper and markers and the all hugs and kisses on the cheek. Like I said, it's bitter sweet, but you're safe and happy now. We love you with everything.
