“ One of my fondest memories of Marie is how she loved to celebrate the holidays - ALL of THEM. You could always count on her to have decorations up. Marie was also one of the most dedicated employees I've ever known. She will be greatly missed by all who knew & loved her.

“ I found such delight in knowing Marie. Even in the light of unhappy news or events, she never failed to somehow find a rainbow.

Her smile was contagious and seemed never to diminish or end. Even if her words might have been stern [which was not often], she never spoke without love.

She knew the words of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ when He said in John 13:34 “A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another”.

Not only was Marie cheerful, she was compassionate and kind, but also she was accepting of people as they were.

We will miss her greatly, but because she believed in the risen Son of God, we who remain behind, can be at peace to know she is in His presence now, hearing Him clearly and singing praises to His face.
