

Marilyn Marley-Bailey

March 24, 1954 - November 22, 2011

NORTH RICHLAND HILLS -- Marilyn Marley-Bailey, 57, went home to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus, Tuesday, Nov. 22, 2011, at a local hospital.

Funeral: 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 29, at Gateway Church, 7501 Davis Blvd., North Richland Hills. Interment: Moore Memorial Gardens in Arlington.

Visitation: The family will receive friends 6 to 8 p.m. Monday at Lucas Funeral Home, 1321 Precinct Line Road in Hurst. Marilyn was a big cheerleader of life and loyal in every aspect. She loved the Lord and everyone around her.

She loved to listen to music, paint and draw, dance, worship, and spend time with her beloved family. She loved her work staff at Lockheed Martin and was there for almost 30 years. Survivors: Son, Brandon Bailey and wife, Farrah; daughter, Lauren Bailey; grandchildren, Collin Taylor Bailey, Tristan Pierce Bailey and Elijah Coatney Bailey; brother, Daly Marley; sisters, Trudy Stasio and Patricia Cox.

Tribute Wall

JK

“ My sympathies for the untimely passing of Marilyn, I talked with her on Monday Evening and was she was looking well. Brandon, so glad she has had you as support for her Life, she truly has a winner in you. May all you rejoice in her Life and know that this is a Graduation to a Higher Standing.
May GOD Bless you all.

Jack King

Jack King - November 29, 2011 at 11:40 AM