“ I'm so sorry I couldn't be there for Martin's funeral today. When I think of him I remember all of the vacations our families took together and how much fun we all had, like the trip to Maine or when we visited the warmest lake I have ever swam in in Oklahoma. He was always kind to me, and I will miss him.

“ God Bless You Martin, I know that you are pain free now~!Sure was good to see you and your family. It helps me to know that you are surrounded by love and that your loved ones will help each other down the road that will be traveled without you by their side. Many special memories~! I love you like a brother~! (Martin always told me this)
