April 20, 1917 - April 7, 2012

LONGVIEW -- Maurine Ann Hodson went home to be with her Lord on Friday, April 6, 2012.

Funeral: 9 a.m., Saturday, April 14, at Lucas Funeral Home, Hurst. Interment will be at 4 p.m. Saturday in Altus, Okla. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Friday at Lucas Funeral Home.

Maurine was born April 20, 1917, in Frederick, Okla., and lived in Altus, Okla., until she married Roy A. Hodson in 1937. They then moved to Oklahoma City, where they had three sons and one daughter together. After 46 years of marriage Roy passed away and Maurine moved to Hurst, where she lived for more than 20 years. A traditional Methodist and member of St. Paul's Methodist Church in Hurst, Maurine devoted her later years to reading, studying and teaching the Bible both in her church and as a discussion leader in Bible Study Fellowship. Bible after Bible became tattered from use as she repeatedly read and studied the scriptures.

Maurine was preceded in death by her beloved sisters, Maxine (her twin), and their older sister, Edna Earl.

“ *I miss much about Aunt Maurine:
her inspiration,
her love for God and His Word,
her independent spirit,
her lady-like ways,
her wit and sense of humor,
her infectious laughter..and her potato salad! (In our area potato salads resemble cold soups.)
Praise God!She's with Jesus!
Love and prayers continue for my special cousins,
Pat and Hugh McKnight
