“ I am so sorry for your loss, Megan and I went to school together from the 4th grade. She was always fun, playing jokes on people and giving everyone a good laugh. She will be missed.

I taught Megan while she was in our Disciplinary Alternative Education Program. Megan was a model student during the time we learned together. One afternoon, having completed her studies and assignments, she asked if there was something else she might do to occupy her time before we went out to exercise. I provided her with a small 4"x4" piece of blank tile and watercolors. Megan asked, "If I were to paint anything for you, what would you like?" I responded to her, "Paint me out to sea again, as a young Marine, looking over the ocean from the ship I'm aboard, please." I've cherished that water painting on that piece of tile now, for what must be approaching 20 years and it's on the windowsill above my kitchen sink so that I remember Megan throughout each day at home. Megan was so very beautiful, kind, generous, thoughtful and talented. Her time here among us was truly too short-lived.

“ Megan was at every family reunion with a sweet smile. Even though we would see her only 3-4 times a year, not one time did I see her without that smile.

“ Even though I've only known Megan a short while she became my friend the first day we met. She was a beautiful and kind person that because of her permanent smile made everyone around her smile. We will miss her dearly.
My condolences go out to all of her loved ones. May God bless you.

“ Megan,

I am going to miss you and all the great adventures we had cruising in your truck in pasture, hiding from weird guys that followed us around at Wal-Mart, chasing down goat kids, and playing dance dance revolution for 5 hours straight (my legs and butt hurt really bad after that). I always had a good time with you even the time the crazy old lady gave us the bird at Security Service for taking too long in the drive thru was fun. I am also going to miss beating the boys at shoot the moon with you even though it didn't happen very often but,when it did it was pretty sweet. I will never forget you and expect to see you waiting for me at the pearly gates when I get there.
