

Michal Pratt

July 16, 1950 - May 30, 2007

Michal Lynn was born July 16, 1950, in Bremerton, Wash., to Rex Ellis and Dixie Lee Hopwood Newman. Michal was the greatest mother in the whole wide world and was adored by her children and grandsons. The "Golden Girls" are special friends who gave her endless pleasure in their friendships and were so supportive of her during the last year. Cooking and baking for the pleasure of her family, friends, clients, charity auctions and husband's business associates was her great love and she never failed to delight with these efforts from her kitchen. Michal was preceded in death by her parents. Survivors: Left to cherish their memories and mourn her death are her adoring husband of 37 years, Eric Pratt; her loving children, Terra Lynn Salas and husband, Hector, of Lake Dallas and Gordon Pratt and wife, Robyn, of Euless; grandchildren, Andrew Allen Pratt, Alexander Wells Pratt, Jordan Kyle Pratt, Ethan Antonio Salas and Maximo Weber Salas; mother-in-law, June Pratt; nephew, John Stroud and wife, Laurie; grandnieces, Brittany and Courtney; and special pets, her dogs, Kenna, Scarlett and beloved Skye.
