“ When I was four I hide your toothbrush so that you would not go to Canada. I wasn't sure I wanted to share my Aunt Mollie. You have always been a wonderful part of my life and it is hard to believe you are gone. Thank you for making my bed and putting my robe in my room. You have always supported me through the years.

I am glad that I know that you have an eternal destiny. Thank you God for sharing this wonderful life with our family.

I pray I take proper care of Uncle Ruben.
