

Molly Greenwood

March 18, 1938 - January 9, 2011

Molly was born in Brownfield, Texas to C. B. & Melba Estep and was married to Hutson A. Greenwood, Jr. on December 15, 1956.

Molly was a loving and dedicated daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother & great-grandmother. Family was her first priority but she was also proud of her work as a Receptionist at Christian Homes & Family Services of Abilene.

Molly's life was a testament to her faith. She was the embodiment of humility, gave freely of her love and kindness, and served as a tremendous example of Christianity, strength, and quiet determination.

In lieu of flowers the family invites you to honor Molly's memory with donations in her name to Abilene: Christian Homes & Family Services christianhomes.com/index.php/cart_donations/or Metroport Meals on Wheels www.metroportmow.org/secure/help_donate.a sp

Molly was preceded in death by her husband Hutson A Greenwood, Jr. Molly is survived son, John Mark Greenwood and wife Jan; daughter Julie Lang and husband Bill; grandchildren, Ashley, John, Luke and Matthew Greenwood, and Jeremy, Zachary, Kelsey and Colton Lang; great-grandchildren, Addison and Owen Lang; and sister, Joan Pierce.

She will be missed by ALL!!!

Tribute Wall

TE

“ Julie, I am so sorry to hear about your mom. Praying our Christ will be carrying you and your family during this difficult time.

*Class of 83 LHHS
Tracy Harris Evans*

Tracy Harris Evans - January 14, 2011 at 12:26 AM

KN

“ I did not have the privilege of knowing Molly Greenwood but I DO know & love her beautiful daughter, Julie. I can only imagine what an extraordinary person Molly must have been if she was anything like Julie! Our sincerest condolences to all of her family and friends. May God wrap His arms around you and give you much peace and comfort at this sad time. Our Love and prayers, Tina & Tim

Kristina W. Neldner - January 12, 2011 at 01:51 PM

LF

“ Aunt Molly was such a fun and loving aunt .I have so many great memories of her.I remember when she drove down to Austin to meet Mom,Rebecca,Brittany and me and it was Easter.Rebecca's neighborhood had a huge Easter egg hunt.She and mom were out there helping Brittany find eggs.I think they had just as much fun as Brittany.Ya'll are in our prayers.We love you.

Lisa Floyd - January 11, 2011 at 07:15 PM