“ Nancy was a dear friend. She was my shoulder to cry on, an ear to listen when I needed to vent. I knew that if I asked her to pray for me, she would. She loved her Lord and now, Nancy is walking by His side. When I join her in Heaven, I will look her up and find out where the nearest El Chico's is. We enjoyed many lunch dates there. She called it El Chico Monday's since we always went on Monday. We also enjoyed going visiting our kids from Miss Esther's class. Nancy named us the "Sunday School Police." My prayers to her family as I know they are missing her deeply. Please be assured that she is happier and healthier than she has ever been. And one day, we will all be together again. Yes, Nancy, "I Can Only Imagine" what it will be like ... you already know !

“ I thank God for the blessing Nancy has been to me and will continue to be as she lives in my heart. She's earned a crown with many stars. Many souls will be in The Kingdom because of Nancy's boldness for the Lord. Nancy's smiling face will be waiting at the gate for us, and we'll praise our Lord together for eternity.

“ What I will remember most about Nancy is that she loved the Lord. She knew Jesus as her personal Savior and she wanted to share the love of Christ with those she came in contact with. She was not ashamed of the Gospel of Jesus Christ (Rom. 1:16). She shared it with boldness. Sometimes it was not well received and she was criticized for it but she continued to care. She taught me by her example. I know she will hear “Well done my good and faithful servant”.

“ My memory of Nancy was that of an encourager. She spurred us on in God's love. Her legacy will live on in our hearts & minds daily. Even though she isn't here in body her legacy will live on for she planted many seeds in people's hearts. Her greatest joy was to hear that her family is walking in the truth. 3 John 1:4
