

Naoma Beckett

September 26, 1933 - March 2, 2009

ROANOKE -- Noama Beckett, 75, passed away Monday, March 2, 2009. Funeral: 2 p.m. Friday at Lucas Funeral Home, 137 E. Hill St., Keller. Interment: Bluebonnet Hills Memorial Park. Visitation: The family will receive friends 6 to 9 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home. Naoma was a lifelong resident of Denton County. She retired from Texas Instruments after 33-plus years of service. She also was a firefighter and EMS chief for Roanoke Volunteer Fire Department for 24 years. She enjoyed crossword puzzles, traveling across country in a motor home, fishing and hunting. Her great loves were her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. Naoma was passionate about caring for and watching birds.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, two sisters, one daughter and one son. Survivors: Husband of 35 years, Lloyd Beckett; six children; 14 grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; and a large extended family.

Lucas Funeral Home Keller, 817-753-6800 View and sign guestbook at

Tribute Wall

CW

“Denton County was blessed because of the service and dedication Naoma gave to the fire/ems service. Those of us who were around then knew that it was always about the people and not the praise. The Fire chief's always looked forward to the good food she would provide. Our prayers will be with you during these hard days ahead.

Charlie Williams - March 06, 2009 at 02:54 PM