“ Nina Outlaw was beyond an amazing teacher. She was truly a Godsend. She really cared about her students. I remember at DHJ High School at assemblies she told a story about a huge Dog. It was so funny she made the audience burst out in laughter and we always gave her a standing ovation. She helped me more than anyone can know. I grew up in a severely abusive environment. My life at home was often unbearably violent. I reached out to Nina and she helped me so much. She always made time when I needed to talk to her. After I left school we briefly stayed in touch until I went back to NY. I found her again must have been just before she passed. I was able to talk to her in more detail of things that I was unable to tell her when I attended school. I got to thank her for being such a positive person in my life which helped me survive the abuse. Being able to talk to her again I see, was meant to be. How do you thank a beautiful soul, for being such a loving part of your life? I love you Nina.

“ I have so many fun memories that involve Nina Mae! She took her niece, Linda, and I to see Viva Las Vegas when we were about 14. All of us tried to shimmy like Ann Margaret on the way home.

Every time I heard Nina's very distinctive laughter, I knew life was about to get a lot better.

I was a city girl, and she took great delight in scaring me at the farm. Always fun, always inclusive--that was Nina Mae!

I can say with great enthusiasm that we observed for years a life well lived!

“ Nina was always laughing and loving; she was and is beloved in life and death. Her adorable way of saying what most of us were thinking, endeared her to everyone. Nina was REAL and the BEST; she was our human Velveteen Rabbit, I feel very blessed to have known her. In loving memory, Janet “ Sweet, smart, loveable!!! Nina was all about caring for others. In return, we all cared about her....loved her!

From meeting she and Morris at the First United Methodist Church in 1978 by bashing into their brand new car, to enjoying her as our daughters' teacher, to our involvement together with Metroport Meals On Wheels, Nina holds a very special place in our hearts. We will miss her laughter, smile, determination, love. Their marriage and love stand as a great example for all to follow.
