

Nita Cunningham

December 20, 1943 - August 1, 2010

NORTH RICHLAND HILLS -- Nita Kathryn Cunningham, 66, passed away Sunday, Aug. 1, 2010, after a short battle with cancer. Funeral: 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at Keller Church of Christ with senior minister Kyle Bolton officiating. Nita was born in Pocahontas, Ark., on Dec. 20, 1943. She grew up in St. Louis, Mo., and married Philip on June 13, 1969. After living in Fort Walton Beach, Fla., and Niceville, Fla., for 15 years, she and Philip moved to Grand Prairie, living there four years before moving to North Richland Hills for the next 21 years. Nita worked as a librarian at Fort Worth Christian School for a number of years and was a member of Keller Church of Christ. She loved to teach the Bible to children and train young puppeteers for Leadership Training for Christ. She was preceded in death by her son, Paul Cunningham. Survivors: Husband, Philip Cunningham of North Richland Hills; daughters, Sarah Cunningham of Nashville, Tenn., and Mary Cunningham of Baltimore, Md.; brother, Jimmie Hattemer and wife, Ruth, of Troy, Ill.; and sister, Nancy McEntire and husband, Jack, of Urbana, Ill.

Lucas Funeral Home

Tribute Wall

GJ

“ I am so glad to have know Nita. I loved working with her this year on puppets for the 3rd and 4th graders. She was a wonderful example of a christian woman. May God be with you Philip and your girls during this difficult time. We can rejoice knowing she is with God.

---

Gail Jaynes - August 05, 2010 at 05:45 PM

BB

“ I Will always remember her in that black chair in my classroom at church. She always had a smile and loved the Lord. I miss you and God bless you.

---

Brylee Black - August 04, 2010 at 05:07 PM

BB

“ I will always remember her sitting in that bck chair in my 6th grade classroom at church. She always had a smile and always was at church. She did love the Lord so much. I miss you, and God bless you.

---

Brylee Black - August 04, 2010 at 05:05 PM