

Patricia Singletary

November 28, 1931 - April 11, 2009

EULESS -- Patricia Ann Linn Singletary, 77, passed peacefully into the arms of our Savior on Holy Saturday, April 11, 2009, after a courageous battle with cancer. She was surrounded by her husband of 55 years and their children at the family home in Euless where she had resided the past 44 years. Service: Mass of Christian Burial will be at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at St. Patrick Cathedral in Fort Worth, with the Rev. Richard Flores as celebrant. Interment: 1 p.m. in Dallas-Fort Worth National Cemetery. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at Lucas Funeral Home, 1321 Precinct Line Road, Hurst. Memorials: In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to Mother and Unborn Baby Care of Tarrant County, St. Patrick's Cathedral in Fort Worth, or Catholic Charities. Patsy was born Nov. 28, 1931, in New Orleans, La., the only child of the late Edward C. and Charlotte S. Linn. She attended Holy Angels Academy and Loyola University. Patricia was honored in her life calling as wife, mother and homemaker. She was a devout Catholic and her pious nature touched and influenced all those who knew her. She never wavered in her obedience and devotion to Jesus Christ and the Virgin Mary. She generously contributed her time and resources to innumerable charities, especially defending the rights of the unborn, as well as her selfless donation of more than 14 gallons of blood during her lifetime. Survivors: Her loving husband, Aldrich L.; their eight children, daughter, Kathleen M. Fehr and husband, Richard, son, Dr. Thomas A. and wife, Marjorie, son, Michael P. and wife, Shawnda, son, Daniel E. and wife, Jean, daughter, Peggy A. Martin and late husband, Mark; son, Timothy P.; son, John J. and wife, Geetangali; son, Lt. Col. William P. and wife, Kimberly. "Pat-Pat" was blessed with 16 grandchildren; one great-grandson; her sister-in-law, Olga F. Singletary; a niece; two nephews; numerous cousins; and countless friends whom she deeply cherished
