

Patrick Cummings

July 3, 1936 - July 3, 2006

Patrick John Cummings was born July 3, 1936, in Kansas City, Mo. He graduated from Laneri High School. He was formerly employed by American Tobacco Co., Reese B. Davis Co. and Radio Shack. He retired from Union Pacific Railroad. Patrick was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church. He was involved in photography and was interested in the film industry. He was an actor and played extras in dozens of films, including "Trip to Bountiful" and "Positive I.D." Patrick was preceded in death by his mother, Clara Lee Howell Cummings. ♂??? Survivors: His former wife, Kimberly Cummings of Fort Worth; daughters, Terri Cummings of Fort Worth, Karen Giles of Arlington and Kelly Cummings of Vermont; four grandchildren; one stepson; and two stepdaughters.