“ Working with Phillip at Hughes & Luce law firm was a true life experience for me in friendship and the value of. He always had a smile-- even in the most difficult of work situations. He would inspire others to do their best and always helped us to achieve our goals. He saw the best in people! He was a friend that dearly loved his family and was proud of their accomplishments. He will be missed for the fact is he touched so many lives and inspired us all to be better people! To his family now at their time of sorrow. I wish you comfort and rest in knowing that he is now in Heaven and looking down at us all with inspiration and encouragement to live our lives to the fullest as he did.
