“ Dear Gordon Family, may the celebration of your loved ones Home Going encourage others to answer the Lord's call of salvation before it is an eternity too late. We will miss Sister Gordon and her simple request of "I Can't Even Walk Without Him Holding My Hand". She now walks with Him in spirit like never before. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. May His richest blessings bring you sweet peace. Remember, "Ain't No Grave!"

“ Rachel had the brightest smile for everyone she met. She lit up when she smiled. It's a little darker here without her, but she is smiling with Jesus now. And one day we will see her again. Until then we'll miss her and share fond memories.

“ If I could have chosen another birth mother to be mine it would have been you. You were amazing in every way. I don't know how we'll get by without you.

“ In loving memory of a wonderful lady who will live in our hearts forever. I will always remember Rachel as one of the sweetest, kindest and most caring persons I've ever known. She will always hold a special place in my heart. My deepest sympathy to the family for your loss. May God bless you now and in the days ahead.
