“ I would like to convey my sympathy in the loss of Mr Hills. I didn't know him personally, but I do know the pain of losing one in death. I lost my father, and a year later my brother. We found much comfort in reading little notes such as this from family, friends and even those we never met and just wanted to show they care. Also, reading the bible in Psalm 34:18 it reassures us that we are never alone, more so at a time like this. Then in John 11:11, 14-44. Here it gives us a hope of the resurrection, when we read of Jesus resurrecting Lazarus from his memorial tomb, right before the very eyes of those he loved. Just imagine the tears of joy when they heard Jesus say, "Lazarus, come forth!" We will experience that same joy when John 5:25, 28 is fulfilled. Cherish the memories you shared and keep them close to your heart. Pass on, what you learned from him, to others and his legacy will live on in them. Take care of yourselves so you can be there for those who love you. My condolences to all who knew Mr. Hills.
