

Regina Getter

April 13, 1954 - January 9, 2007

Regina was a longtime member of Midtown Church of Christ and later a member of Heritage Church of Christ. She taught classes for 2-year-olds for 30 years. She was employed for three years for Williamson-Dickie as an administrative assistant. Regina was preceded in death by her husband, Richard. Survivors: Son, Benjamin Getter and wife, Susan, of Fort Worth; daughter, Sarah Collins and husband, Shaun, of Ponder; parents, Garland and Peggy Bledsoe of Haltom City; brother, R.M. Bledsoe and wife, Julie, of Newport, Ark.; sisters, Belinda Bledsoe of Haltom City and Karen Denney of Haltom City; and nieces, Kristie Denney and Elizabeth Watson.

Tribute Wall

MT

“ I was drawn toward Regina's warm and sweet spirit the moment she started to work with WD. She was thoughtful, caring and loved doing for others. The thought of not seeing her in the halls on a daily basis saddens me dearly. I will surely miss her.

God Bless to her family and may God's strength sustain you through this time.

Melody Tidball - January 11, 2007 at 12:36 PM