“ Dearest Debra,
My heartfelt thoughts are with you and all of your family at this very sad time after losing your Dad. You were a very good daughter to him. I want to remind you of how lovingly you cared for him over these past few years with many trials and challenges. Your Dad had to have been so grateful for your love and support because you were there with him when he was lonely, you cheered him on when he needed it, and you made him laugh when laughter was the only medicine that would work. My prayer for you and your family is that you will know God's love and comfort in the days ahead.
Lovingly, Lois Brower
