“ I have found it difficult to cry over your passing. I know that I miss you bad, and I can't imagine going to family functions without you there. But, I still really haven't cried liked I figured I should have. I've been thinking why that is, and the only reason that I can figure is that I never can remember a time where we weren't laughing. Sure there were serious times, but we always were laughing. You were not just my cousin, but my brother, and I will forever miss you. But, I always have the good times in my heart and you will always be there. Say hello to Chris for me, and you two keep out of trouble. I love you always, bro. Big dog gonna miss ya!

“ Richard,

We have been through so much, and probly the most. I have the best of memories with you that just keep playing in my head like a movie i will never let those go because they mean so much to me they will live on and be told to our baby. You know you told me you were scared to be a father but like i told you, you would have been the best, and i konw you will be here for me and the baby watching over us taking care of us. waking up in the morning hurts the most knowing i cant kiss you in the morning or here your voice tell me i love you. I am glade i got to talk to you on friday morning and here you tell me I love you and you hear me say it back i wish i could have seen you friday but at least you were with me monday. You always told me you wanted me to be apart of the family, well baby your getting that because your family has accepted me and has been so wonderful i dont know what i would do without your family they have helped me threw alot.

Take care of all of us.

I Love You So Damn Much Boy!!!

If your looking over me and see me crying just hold me because thats what im wishing you could be doing i know you never liked to see me cry or be the one the make me cry but most of these tears are joy from all the memories we have shared.

“ Richard, you are on my mind now and will always be. you know how much we all love you! this is just now starting to seem real. waking up this morning i expected to see you sleeping in our malibu, waiting for us to wake you up. LOL. i know your all around us in the garage and everywhere... man if those walls could talk.... its hard to believe that when were all together you wont be there doing your silly dances and trying to sing along to all the songs. we know that you wanted more to your life then there was, but believe that your life in our hearts and minds will never end! we know you didnt always show how much you love your family and friends, but there were always those moments where you'd get alittle emotional, and spill your feelings. we all know how much you love us. we will come visit you often, and make sure you visit us and put your arms around us and let us know your doing fine. Know that we are celebrating your wonderful spirit and all the wonderful crazy memories you shared with us, in the short time you were here with us. I LOVE YOU! -GONE BUT NEVER FORGOTTEN!-

To Richards Family,

You all have such great courage and so much love and concern for all of richards friends. believe me when i say that you are going to change so many lives, and Richards life is an inspiration to lots of parents. Susi and Bill, we just live right down the road if you ever need anything or if you just want to talk about Richard. We are here for you!!!
