

Ricky Glover

February 17, 1955 - January 30, 2008

FORT WORTH -- Rick Glover, 52, a loving son, father, grandfather, brother and friend, died peacefully at home Wednesday, Jan. 30, 2008. Funeral: 11 a.m. Monday at Castle Hills Baptist Church, 401 Beverly Road, Azle. The Rev. Lawrence Hammond and Rick's father, J.B. Glover, will officiate. Interment: Following a graveside service, Rick will be laid to rest next to his mother in Woodland Park Cemetery, Mineral Wells. Visitation: The family will receive friends 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday at Lucas Funeral Home, 1321 Precinct Line Road, Hurst. Rick was born Feb. 17, 1955, to J.B. and Iva Modene Lee Glover in Fort Worth. He enjoyed being outside, hunting, fishing, being with his family and friends. He was always the life of the gathering and wanted everyone to have a good time and laugh. Survivors: Left to cherish their memories as they mourn his death are his sons, Jason Glover and Kody Glover; daughters, Christina Davis and husband Colin, Trachelle Luna and her husband, Jesse; father, J.B. Glover and his wife, Dorothy; sister, Brenda Lloyd and her husband, Jerry; loving companion, Dianne Goains; grandchildren, Chase and Brenan Glover, Bailey and Dannirae Martinez, Catherine and Emma Davis, Tyler and Troy Luna; many nieces and nephews; and extended family.