“ Pat...We're basically the same age.. You and Robert and Tom and I.... My heart totally understands your pain...I wish I could give you a real hug but know that I've thought of you so much the last few days.... We've mentioned this... how they are our everything. I know that your love is still there as his is for you.... and I know you will be together again. (FDMB... cries)

“ I first met Robert & Pat last year when we were planning our multi-year reunion for North Side High School. What struck me most about both of them was their enthusiasm for the project. Although Pat didn't attend North Side, she was as much a part of the planning as anyone else. What also struck me about Robert was he was so smart and so eager to help wherever he could. I don't know how we would have accomplished all we did without the support of both Robert & Pat. I will cherish the memories made through that project always. God be with you and your family, Pat.

“ My memories of Robert are all identical, mirror images of each other. Robert was always smiling, from the inside. To see him always made me feel better.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time of your/our loss of this precious son, loving husband and father, beloved nephew and cousin, and friend to all that loved him. None of our lives will be the same without him and all of us are changed because of his gentle spirit and loving character. His quite, incredible selfless way of living his life made everyone that met him want to know him more. Our prayers will be with you Pat and all of his children during this time of learning to live on without him by your side. It's hard to say "goodbye" so may we say until met again....Robert Charles will be waiting on us as we all join him one day...along the golden shores of heaven. He has made his assurance sure by beliving in the Lord Jesus Christ....until we met again.

“ Thank you for the opportunity. I know Pat, Robert's husband as she had cared for my two boys (cats) since 2008. They love her and I love them. She and Robert are amazing people to do what they do. I will send something to her to keep up the good work. I'm very sorry we cannot be to the service - we are in the middle of moving. But I will definitely be in touch soon and come to see you Patricia. I love you for what you do. As I said before God has a place for you (and Robert) in heaven surrounded by beautiful cats you have loved and cared for. God Bless. I have sent your daughter a message. Hugs forever, Nancy Lawson
