“ Roger always had a joke and a story to tell. He had a great positive attitude and a willingness to help anybody at any time. A few of my memories of Roger include him loading Gaston up in the back of the truck for a "Twinkie run", magic tricks, water tower climbs, golf games where we ridiculed each others efforts, unintentional fountain diving, afternoon cookouts and watching Cowboy games. He always kept a red bandana handy during the game to toss on the floor in case a ref missed a call. He had a strong faith in God and he used to always say "Never lie, never cheat, never steal, never quit." Roger was a special man and I will always cherish the time we shared. My thoughts and prayers are with Andrea, Terry and the rest of his family. Roger will be greatly missed.

“ Roger Was A Good Friend of Mine.

He use to call me at 4:00 in the morning and tell me it was time to check the trot lines. I would get up in the dark and walk to his house and we would push off the boat before daylight. Other weekend morning I would visit with him on his front porch and have an early morning drink as he told me stories and jokes. He must of breathed through osmosis because he never had to stop talking. He would tell me stories about his deer camp and adventures of scuba diving. Stories about Andrea feeding the fish and his time playing guitar with Jimmy Buffett.

We had fish fry's, BBQ's and camp fires. He knew how to make a great bloody mary.

He was a good friend of mine and I am going to miss him. God bless this Man.
