“ My buddy, my friend.. I worked with Ron when I was with Ranco and he worked for Lone Star/Wynn's. My deepest sympathy and prayers are with his family. I also had the pleasure of meeting Debby during one of my IMACA trips. Ron also introduced me to his sister's dolls. I will miss you my friend but know you are in a better place. “ To say Ronny will be missed seems trivial. With his very presence, any room was more alive. For his family, may you find peace in knowing you were blessed beyond measure to have shared his life.

Sending love and prayers.

“ God bless the Taylor family, Ron was a wonderful man and a true patriarch. I can't count the number of times he would get me laughing so hard from one of his cliché's, that the tears would run down my face. His sense of humor and wittiness were his trademarks. I've known Ron my entire working life and you will never find a more honest, caring and giving person on the face of this earth. Will miss you bubba, but I know you're in God's hands (as always). Until we meet again.
