

Ross Churman

May 7, 1950 - January 14, 2010

BURLESON -- Ross Churman, 59, went home due to a massive stroke on Thursday, Jan. 14, 2010, surrounded by family and love. Service: 11 a.m. Saturday at Retta Baptist Church. Burial: Private in Hawkins Cemetery. No visitation. Memorials: Ross' heart would be to support the precious orphans in Kenya through Living Word Outreach-African Missions, 107 N. Main, Mansfield, Texas 76063. Ross trained horses his whole life. He was happiest on his place, in his barn and with friends at the coffee shop. But his favorite of all was vying to Olivia's every whim. Ross was one of a kind and a man of great faith. His life was fulfilled and enriched by those whose lives he touched. Ross was preceded in death by his father, Andrew Churman. Survivors: Wife of 36 years, Lari Williams Churman; son, Sloan and Sarah Churman; grandchildren, Olivia Li and soon-to-be-born Elise; mother, Louise Sloan Churman; siblings, Andy and Frances Churman, Jean and Allen Beach and Earl and Gail Churman; brothers-in-law, Kirby and Linda Williams and Shawn and Leigh Williams; and many nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

CW

“ My prayers are with the family of this great man. He was truly a blessing to every person he met.

---

Crystal Wilbanks - January 18, 2010 at 04:26 PM

RH

“ *Heavens new horseman has arrived.Thanks for the memories. Till we meet again,my cowboy friend.
Randall,Diane, Justin (PUDDIN)*

---

Randall,Diane, & Justin Hairston - January 16, 2010 at 11:51 PM

LB

“ Lari, I am so sorry. We will all miss Ross. He was a very special person, and a great horseman.

---

Linda Bullard - January 14, 2010 at 06:25 PM

TS

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family. Ross was such a great man and such a gift he had with horses. We attribute the boys rodeo success to the horses they rode which were all trained by Ross.He was a blessing to be around and we are glad to have known him. I know he was welcomed into heaven with open arms with God saying "Well done my good and faithful servant." Peace and Comfort to you.

---

The Cobb Family, Craig, Kelly, Zack, Q.B., Callie and Sadie - January 14, 2010 at 04:25 PM