“ We are sorry for your loss, our family too feel aviation history has lost a wonderful contributor. My husband, Mike Thompson, always appreciated Sabe's ability to be a statesman at all times. Sabe demonstrated the leadership that was admired. Even with the great responsibilities of his position at the Fort Worth Regional Office, he still was able to maintain a personal touch with his employees. Our prayers are with you in this season of loss and pray for contentment in Jesus during this transition. Sincerely,
Connie Thompson and family.
