

SHARON De BULLET

January 3, 1946 - July 12, 2007

FORT WORTH -- Sharon Ann Johnson de Bullet, 61, wife of Gene de Bullet Jr., passed away Thursday, July 12, 2007, following a seven-year battle with cancer. Mass of Christian: 11 a.m. Monday at St. Paul's Catholic Church, 5508 Black Oak Lane, River Oaks. Burial: Greenwood Memorial Park. Visitation: The family will receive friends 5 to 7 p.m. Sunday in the Great Room at Robertson Mueller Harper. A spiritual vigil will commence at 7 p.m. Memorials: Sharon's memory may be honored with contributions to the Eagle Mountain Volunteer Fire Department for its timeless dedication to Eagle Mountain Lake residents, 9500 Live Oak Lane, Fort Worth, Texas 76179. Born in Buffalo, N.Y., to Aeryl and Mille Johnson, Sharon made her home in Richland Hills until moving to the Eagle Mountain Lake area in the early 1970s. Sharon graduated from Richland Hills High School and North Texas State University. She was an officer in the Fort Worth Jaycees Wives Club and was active in the Lake Country Property Owners Association and Lake Country Garden Club. Survivors: She is survived by Gene de Bullet Jr., Courtney de Bullet-Smith and husband, Chris Smith, and Eugene de Bullet III, Lyn Bruce and Kenneth Johnson. Robertson Mueller Harper Funerals & Cremations 1500 Eighth Ave., 817-924-4233