

Sherri Yates

October 15, 1950 - April 30, 2007

FORT WORTH -- Sherri Lynn Rucker Yates, 56, a loving wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt and friend, passed away Monday, April 30, 2007, after her courageous battle with cancer. Sherri worked as a clerk for the Tarrant County District Court for 21 years. Survivors: Left to treasure their memories and mourn her death include her husband, Tom Yates; children, Stacy Woodard, Chris Forbes, Travis Forbes and his wife, Camille; mother, Juanita Rucker of Brighton, Colo.; grandchildren, Sean Humke, Carlee Woodard and Kayla Forbes; sisters, Kathy Bergrud and her husband, Gerald, of Brighton, Colo.; twin sister, Terri Fields of Woodbury, Minn., Gayle Blumenthal of Fort Collins, Colo., Cindy Miller of Thorton, Colo.; and many nieces, nephews and friends. Rest in peace our beautiful, gentle Sherri.

Tribute Wall

TE

“ The first breath we take, is our first gift, the gift of life, but mine was two gifts, the second being a beautiful sister to walk through life with. We shared the joy, the pain, the sadness, the happiness the love of our lives together. My memories of you are my life and now I place those memories in my heart.

Thank you God for giving me this beautiful person to walk through life with. She was my Gift.

Terri - May 13, 2007 at 07:11 PM

MS

“ I have many memories of us that I will always treasure. You were called home way too soon. We will all miss you Sherri. There will never be another like you.

Matt Schriener - May 06, 2007 at 06:49 AM

PM

“ I knew Sherri through a mutual friend, Ann Crutcher. May God Bless you and your family.

Pam Mann - May 05, 2007 at 09:12 AM